

Standalone

The Herald Garden Studio resides at the southern end of a Victorian cottage block in Berhampore, Wellington. In a family home where space is at a premium, the studio serves as a multipurpose area for work, play and relaxation. The charm of its entirely timber structure and linings is enhanced by a raw, unadorned materials palette. Small in size but grand in character, we're sure the studio has since become hot property.

p-a.nz
 Photography: Paul McCredie